

For Release: Immediately Contact: Raymond Hammond, Editor; 917.843.8825; rhammond@nyquarterly.org
Publication Information: 5.5 x 8.5 in.; 180 Pages; ISBN: 978-1-935520-12-2 Release date: 10/21/2010
Library of Congress Control Number: 2010936317
Website: <http://nyqbooks.org/title/forenidwithlove>
Suggested Retail: 16.95 USD; 17.95 CAN; 9.95 GBR; 10.95 EUR
Availability: Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Powell's, Small Press Dist. To the Trade: Ingram Distribution, SPD

NYQ Books™ announces the release of For Enid with Love: a festschrift Edited by Barry Wallenstein

New York, NY - NYQ Books is proud to announce the much anticipated release of For Enid with Love: a festschrift.

This is a gathering of essays, poems, and recollections dedicated to the memory of poet, scholar, teacher, and political activist, Enid Dame [1943 – 2003]. The rich array of contributions were written by friends, colleagues, and some who didn't know Enid personally but were moved and influenced by her life's work and ebullient spirit. For nearly a quarter of a century, she edited, with her husband Donald Lev, Home Planet News, and was a beloved member of the New York poetry community for as long. The cumulative effect of this gathering of encomiums recalls Enid as only language and art can do.

Edited by Barry Wallenstein, this collection contains work by Laurence Carr, Patricia Eakins, David Gershator, Phillis Gershator, Roberta Gould, Walter Hess, Bob Holman, Dimitrios Kalantzis, Burt Kimmelman, Careufel de Lamière, Judith Lechner, Linda Lerner, Donald Lev, Ellen Aug Lytle, Patricia Markert, D. H. Melhem, Constance Norgren, Alicia Ostriker, Cheryl A. Rice, Ed Sanders, Judith P. Saunders, Susan Sindall, Harry Smith, Matthew J. Spireng, Nikki Stiller, Yerra Sugarman, Maxine Susman, Karen Swenson, Madeline Tiger, Martin Tucker, Janine Pommy Vega, Carletta Joy Walker, and Barry Wallenstein.

NYQ Books™ was established in 2009 as an imprint of The New York Quarterly Foundation, Inc. Its mission is to augment the New York Quarterly poetry magazine by providing an additional venue for poets who are already published in the New York Quarterly magazine.